

Mark Roane – Treasurer, National Federation of the Blind Virginia

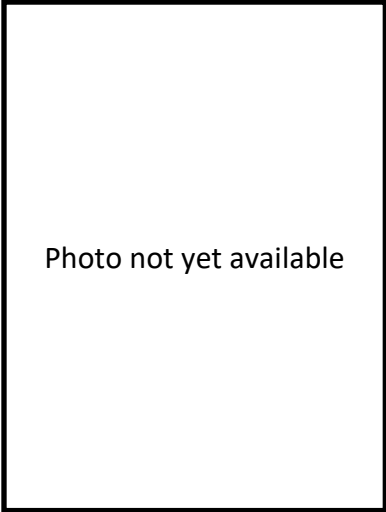

Photo not yet available

Mark earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Virginia Tech. He has worked for the Department of Defense, a private engineering consulting firm, a residential home builder and as an engineering department manager for a large private manufacturer. He has also owned and operated his own engineering consulting company. He serves as the Treasurer of the National Federation of the Blind of Virginia as well as Treasurer of the Federation's local Richmond chapter.

Mark and his wife, Melody, have been members of Richmond's First Baptist Church since August of 2009 and were married in the church's sanctuary in March of 2010. Mark and Melody are active members of the Mustard Seeds bible study class. Mark was ordained as a deacon in the Baptist Church in January of 2016.